"Memento Mori"

I get a little bit down
I get a little bitter
That's when I find find find
I'm breaking a heart
More than a little unkind
When I feel insecure
I'll burn to bone my dear the love you've shown
I'll burn to bone those loving arms around me

I get a little softer
When I quiet my thoughts
And I'll try try try
Not to take you apart
Just a little unsure
Of how to be more secure
Cause those trapdoor spiders they sneak in secret
Speak of deceit
They know I'm listening

I get a little bit down
I get a little bitter
That's when I find find find
I'm breaking a heart
I get a little beat down
I get a little bitter
But I swear I'll try
Not to take you apart

I get a little bit down
I get a little bit lost
And I'll cry cry cry
While I tear us apart
