"Don't Look Down"

We are the broken down
In a dark and lonely world
Searching for melodies to sing
And findin' nothing

Don't look down
You've got a song worth singin'
Hold your head up higher
Reach for the stars,
And touch the sky
Tomorrow will come and you will shine

We are the helpless souls
Waiting for a miracle
Lookin' for heroes in the sky
And findin' nothing

Don't look down
You've got a song worth singin'
Hold your head up higher
Reach for the stars,
touch the sky
Tomorrow will come and you will shine

Don't look down
You've got a song worth singin'
Hold your head up higher
Reach for the stars,
And touch the sky
Tomorrow will come and you will shine

You will shine...
You will shine..
You will shine, yeah
You will shine
