How did I ever get this broken?
I never meant to fall this far
I feel like I'm completely frozen
Can I find a way back to where You are?

Chorus:

'Cause I've been searching for the sun
But I don't know if anyone
Can tell me how to find my way home
All the things that I've become
Are all the things I'm running from
I don't want my heart to turn to stone
This cold has been so bitter
Can you save me from this winter?

It came creepin' in so slowly,
And now it's covered up the truth
In the name of being holy,
We got so far away from you

Chorus:

'Cause I've been searching for the sun
But I don't know if anyone
Can tell me how to find my way home
All the things that I've become
Are all the things I'm running from
I don't want my heart to turn to stone
This cold has so bitter
Can you save me from this winter?

Can you save me from this winter?
Can you save me from this winter?
Can you save me from this winter?
Can you save me from this winter?

Chorus:

'Cause I've been searching for the sun
But I don't know if anyone
Can tell me how to find my way home
All the things that I've become
Are all the things I'm running from
I don't want my heart to turn to stone...

Chorus:

'Cause I've been searching for the sun
But I don't know if anyone
Can tell me how to find my way home
All the things that I've become
Are all the things I'm running from
I don't want my heart to turn to stone
This cold has been so bitter
Can you save me from this winter?

This cold has been so bitter
Can you save me from this winter?
