V1:

She's a punk rock Sharon Stone
I think about her when I'm all alone
When she's near my lips are tightly sewn
But she knows what it means to rip out all the seams from my Heart

V2:

She's the singer in my favorite band
She pouts her lips like no other girl can Someday I'll get the guts to take her hand
And get down on my knees, beg her pretty please for her love

CH:

She's a Superbabe 2000
Superbabe 2000
Everyone's thinking of her
But I'm the only one who could love her
She's a Superbabe

V3:

If beauty was a kingdom she'd be queen
And if she'd have me I'd be her king
I get the chills every time she sings "Thunderbolts and lightning, very very frightening" ...oh, oh, oh
repeat CH
