There's a special girl I want in my world,
Her name is Joanna
She's the only one for me, and it drives me insane.

I thought it was a game, a little bit of pain
In my eyes
But baby now you've had all your fun,
So let's move it on.

So don't keep on saying no,
Don't keep on saying go 'cause

Joanna I need you Joanna
Well can't you see that it's true
I need you Joanna.

Step inside my car an' I'll give you a ride pretty baby
Let me guide you through the night,
Keep the bad guys away.

Don't be afraid, I won't hurt you girl, I promise,
I will play the games you like, but let's move it on.

So don't keep on saying no,
Don't keep on saying go 'cause

Joanna I need you Joanna
Well can't you see that it's true
I need you Joanna.

Joanna I need you Joanna
I bet that you want me too, yeah
Me and you together.
