All the fighting and all the bloodshed
Won't bring these problems to an end
Unneccesary animosity
Leads to ugly atrocity
Caught between a frayed past
And a shaky uncertain future
It's hard to feel secure
It's hard to feel sure

All the violence, all the tension
With such rough comprehension
We tried so hard to change
We tried to hard to stay sane

To live
To love
To view
To do
To create
And destroy
To cut
And deploy
To crumble
And pretend
To break
And to end
