"Defile"

Is this the test of life and death
Again
How much more must be thrown in the way
Is this how it has to go?

Confusion watching as the millions turn blind eyes

Following the path they always took
Down
Where does it end this time and why
Why must we tread where there's nothing to discover

Confusion watching as the millions turn blind eyes
Blind eyes to the ideas changing our lives
No one pays attention unless it's defiling
The world only opens against itself

Speaking only when spoken to Reasonless
Hungry for only the derogatory
The venom and fixation on catastrophe

Tediously watching as the millions turn blind eyes
Blind eyes to the ideas changing our lives
No one pays attention unless it's defiling
The world only opens against itself
