"Dysentery"

Been feeling effects of collapsing
Slowly coming undone with the time
Just waiting around here to relapse
Somehow that's the only way to stay alive

I've been fighting off all the cravings
The undertow's been dragging me down
Some people say I'm killing myself
Will I crumble or will I drown
Your shithouse falls in repossession
Sell your soul for a resurrection
Just dead now

Crashing down into reality
The noose is hung the rope's tight
Victim of my own will's absence
Will I make it through tonight
Will I make it through all right
Your sanity is decomposing
The world you knew has been eroding
The blood in my veins is exploding
Just dead now
Just dead now
Just dead now
Just dead now
Just dead now
