Priveledged one,
You don't deserve the sun you've been handed
Callous fool,
You don't get the respect demanded

Cause you fuckin' lie cheat and steal
Claw your way up the corprate ladder
Turn your back on the ones who trusted you
You aren't some golden child...
You're just dirt

Trust in you,
I think I'd rather trust in nothing
Hold your words true,
I'd rather tune in to the silence
Cause it has more to say than you

Cause you fuckin' lie cheat and steal
Claw your way up the corprate ladder
Turn your back on the ones who trusted you
You aren't some golden child...
You're just dirt

"got em' all fooled"
"you better watch yourself"
"fuck, the world's full of fools as you can see"

Cause you fuckin' lie cheat and steal
Claw your way up the corprate ladder
Turn your back on the ones who trusted you
You aren't some golden child...
You're just dirt
Cause you fuckin' lie cheat and steal
Claw your way up the corprate ladder
Turn your back on the ones who trusted you
You aren't some golden child...
You're just dirt
