Sometimes it seems I am the center of negativity
It always seems that everyone around is out to hate me
I try to push it aside until it's something I can't ignore Drives me crazy 'till I enter the asylum and close the door

This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to

The waves of hate flood in like raging water
It keeps on coming it makes me flail and falter

This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to

This hate taunts me 24 hours a day
I keep on wondering when the fuck will it go away?
This hate taunts me 24 hours a day
I keep on wondering when the fuck will it go away?
This hate taunts me 24 hours a day
I keep on wondering when the fuck will it go away?
This hate taunts me 24 hours a day
I keep on wondering when the fuck will it go away?

This hating me has got to stop
This hating me has got to stop
