Falling in a line of mindless repetition
Waiting in unison as the dosage kicks in Dumbstruck and blindsided, left in place
Rethought it out and my mistakes erase

Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble

World walks by, fucking spit on me
Lock my doors and hide my keys
Kicked to the floor and beat inside
Turn around to find a place to hide

Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble
Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble

So much for living a life
I never had one anyway...

Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble
Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble
Knocked down and left in ruin
Goodbye, let me crumble

So much for living a life
I never had one anyway...
