If these are truly the end times
We're heading out on a low note
Is it the end of the line
I really do hope so
Two years from now
Will the Earth be destroyed
It seems like it should be
So let the waves rise above

Raining asteroids
Or collapsing to pieces
Shockwave mutilation
From nuclear weapons
Man's taking itself out
In a slow suicide
We can only be lucky
If it's in two years time

The seas are rising
The skies are falling
The bodies piling up
Around on every side
Blood is in the streets
Screaming in the air
Let it overcome us
For our last two years

War engulfs all land and
Oceans blackened dead
Volcanos and earthquakes
Tides of molten lead
Skeletons of cities
All that's left are graves
Maybe this will happen
This could be 3 years

The seas are rising
The skies are falling
The bodies piling up
Around on every side
Blood is in the streets

Screaming in the air
Let it overcome us
For our last two years

Atrocious prophecy
Let it all come undone

Death, decay, and destruction
Let it rain the embers of fear
Everything must be destroyed
Destroyed in two years
Annihilate everything
Annihilate everything
Leave no trace of life behind
