A broken nation in slavery
I work all day and dream of free
I never sleep and I never love
I never trust in anyone
I shovel all their shit all day
Suicide brings serenity
Hope for death and hope for life
I've been raped of one and left with lies

Treated like dogs or scum and shit
Choked by your leash and beat with it
Scars of a memory time won't kill
An empty void nothing can fill
I'll never recover from what I've seen
They smashed my hope and sanity
Torn and tattered deep inside
Scars no amount of flesh can hide

Modern day, nightmare
Sanity, constant scare
