Kill me
I'm losing it all
I've no desire to live anymore
Stab me
Wipe me from here
I don't want existence anymore

Nevermind the fact I've been in lights for years
All it does is lead me right to my fears
And fuck what I have now
Feels like nothing somehow

Kill me
I'm losing it all
I hate everything and everyone in my life
Shoot me
Destroy my body
I'm sick of it keeping me here

And they go looking for another one to tear down
All the pressures and the comical idiots
Fuck all that shit that goes along with the business
Makes me want to disappear
