Brainwashed and trained to destroy
They know nothing but oil and blood
Sent to attack and recover the fields
Suffering follows wherever they run
Patriotism or greed
Which one's the reason for which they bleed
Propagated what's right
They don't know the truth for which they fight

Is the black gold worth the blood that's been shed?
Is to say we've won worth the thousands that are dead?
Don't think so...

Ignorance is the campaign
Frustration creating nothing but pain
Holy wars of crusade
A modern version that we have made
Fighting for country or fuel
Which is the reason they've been cast to death
Fucked up the whole world
Years of decline is all we have left

Is the black gold worth the blood that's been shed?
Is to say we've won worth the thousands that are dead?
Don't think so...

The last thing we needed has happened
The last thing we needed has happened
The last thing we needed has happened
The last thing we needed has happened

Is the black gold worth the blood that's been shed?
Is to say we've won worth the thousands that are dead?
Don't think so...
