"Paranoia Virus"

I can't even open the door without
Fearing for my well being in the hell out there
Dangerous business living life in these times
I can't keep myself sane when they're assaulting my mind

It's alive inside us
It's a paranoia virus
Transmitted through the wires
Infected from the liars

I won't go out unarmed and off guard
I can't speak to you unless I know your history
You aren't allowed to feel welcome anymore
There's no such thing as safety or security

It's alive inside us
It's a paranoia virus
Transmitted through the wires
Infected from the liars

I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you

You want my mind to be trained to fear you
You want another victim of your brainwashing
You want to make me another beaten slave
But I won't let you spread your disease

It's alive inside us
It's a paranoia virus
Transmitted through the wires
Infected from the liars

I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you

I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening to you
I'm no longer listening
