Visit "Persistence of Fear" on MotoLyrics.com

The fears have come true
The dreams have become nightmares
I'm losing it all
More falls away as the days go by

Can I hold onto what I've got left for now
I don't think so

The hopes have become rust
The ideas have eroded to dust
There's no honesty or trust
Left in this one

Can I hold onto what I've got left for now
I don't think so

Rip it away from me
I know it's gonna happen anyway
Tear down my sanity
Because my grasp's slipping already

It's the nature of this world
