"Red and Blinded"

In limbo your erratic mire
Holding values without morals
Congregate please the sheep
Let them see your shining smiles
Speaking words that hold no worth
All you can spit out is dirt
Share in all your spoils
Fools on parade is all you are

So much but so little
So much but so little
So much but so little
You are what's wrong
But you don't realize it

Rally up the do-right brigade
Humor from your inadvertence
Fossils of a former glory
Handshakes with agendas
Feeding frenzy for the public
Open wide for more misleading
Wipe the blood off greet another
Preach your bullshit louder

So much but so little
So much but so little
So much but so little
You are what's wrong
But you don't realize it

Have you payed any attention at all
It's hard to believe such ignorance
Such retardation insists
Who the fuck could you possibly
Be persuading
Have fun being the saviors of Nobody
