Can I trade what I have amassed
For just one calm and uneventful moment
Another chance to make sense
Of this depleted run

I'm melting down
There's no more source to drain
And I've given up
Black the sky

Can I bargain for something I need
A tranquil sign in a hailstorm
A glimpse of stability
In these dreadful times

I'm melting down
There's no more source to drain
And I've given up
Black the sky
