Hey you get out of my way
I have nothing to say
To you anymore
You are such a stupid whore
And I know that we are through
But what did I do
To make you think this was the end
For me and you

What did I do say or show
To make you change your mind
About me
Was it my long hair
Or the way I used to stare
Was it that jock
Or was it my tiny cock?

Get the fuck away from here and suck some new guys dick
(Hey! Hey! Hey!)
And we always knew that you'd end up like this
(Hey! Hey! Hey!)
What did I ever see in you
How could I think what we had was true?
