Peel me like dead skin
Hate to the bone
Drag you through my field of thorns
And drop you like a stone
Hold me under water
Kick me to the curb
All my wolves are at your door
Take me at my word
Hittin a wall we're hittin a wall
Look at me and you're seeing a monster
You ain't seen it all
If you're almighty
Holier than thou
Seems we've got a discrepancy
We should solve it now
I've built a bigger mountain
Now you want it gone
If you expect to beat me down
Brother bring it on
You want to wrestle with my morals
You think there's something I can learn
You toss me out like an abortion
And I'm the one that fucking burns?
