(Brendan "Brush" Shiels)

I have never put you down
Or anybody else above you.
I have never kicked around
Or said that I didn't love you.
So, how can you come along to me
Saying that it's all over?
Asking me to set you free,
'cause your love is growing colder.
I'm gonna take some time
And change your mind.

And I'll never let you go, how could I?
Knowing that I love you so, I would not.
Always be at all time low,
If I just let you up and walk on out of my life.
I'm gonna make you stay, just watch me.
Nothing that you do or say can stop me.
Never gonna let you go, oh no.
I am never gonna let you go,
I can't let you go.

And I'm gonna do everything that I can
To keep you inside my bed.
Baby, you're gonna know that I'm your man,
If I have to beat it in your head.
You're not gonna come along to me,
"It's over", saying "It's all over, baby".
I'll have you down on your bended knees
Before you're very much older.
I'm gonna take some time
And change your mind.

And I'll never let you go, how could I?
Knowing that I love you so, I would not.
Always be at all time low,
If I just let you up and walk on out of my life.
I'm gonna make you stay, just watch me.
Nothing that you do or say can stop me.
Never gonna let you go, oh no.

I'm never gonna let you go,
I can't let you go.

Go.
Can't let you, let you go, no.
I can't let you, let you go.
Can't let you go, no.
Can't, away.

And I'll never let you go, how could I?
Knowing that I love you so, no I would not.
Always be at all time low,
If I just let you up and walk on out of my life.
I'm gonna make you stay, just watch me.
Nothing that you do or say can stop me.
Never gonna let you go, oh no.
I'm never gonna let you go,
I can't let you go.

Oh no, can't let you go.
