(Gary Moore)

I think I could tell you what you need.
Come with us in the past where my virtue weren't here.
People wouldn't understand
If I told them we were friends.
But it's not them I care about,
It's just a love that never mends.

You can laugh and have fun with others
When you're runnin' around the town.
And I wish I knew what made you get in touch with me
When things are down.

It's hard to accept this fact,
That all you wanna do is talk.
People that you tell about
Would hardly settle for a walk.
But how can it be done again,
With someone you already know all about?
These are just the kind of friends
I can easily do without.

You can laugh and have fun with others
When you're runnin' around the town.
But I wish I knew what makes you get in touch with me
When things are down.

I've said it before and I'll say it again.
'Cause nothing than us ever gonna heals this pain
That I've been left here waiting for,
Something that's gonna turn up for the best.
The time has come once more,
For these thoughts need the rest.
