Shrouded in proof, You're the mystery
You're the truth that lives within the world we see
You're the hand that holds destiny

And I can't pretend I don't know
And I can't leave it alone, yeah yeah

You're the best kept secret in my generation
The best kept secret of all time
You're the best kept secret in my generation
And I found You out

You're the hope over the centuries
You're the cosmic force that rules the galaxies
You're the evidence that demands our belief

And I can't live for myself
I can't keep this all to myself, yeah yeah

You're the best kept secret in my generation
The best kept secret of all time
You're the best kept secret in my generation
And I found You out

The best kept secret in my generation
The best kept secret of all time
The best kept secret in my generation
And I, I found You out

Let it out, let it out
Let it out, let it out, yeah

And I can't pretend I don't know
And I can't leave it alone, yeah yeah

You're the best kept secret in my generation
The best kept secret of all time
You're the best kept secret in my generation
And I found You out

You're the best kept secret in my generation
The best kept secret of all time

You're the best kept secret in my generation
And I found You out, yeah

The best kept secret in my generation
