Speak and my heart starts aching
Reach and the numbness dims
Beat still my minds uncertain
Breathe, it begins again

You are the one real thing, yeah
You are the one true thing that I know
You are the one real thing
No matter what the future brings
You're the one real thing

Stay locked within Your presence
Truth, renew in my mind again
Rest 'cause I know You're faithful
And I trust, 'cause I know Your name

You are the one real thing, yeah
You are the one true thing that I know
You are the one real thing
No matter what the future brings
You're the one real thing

I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me

I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me

Speak and my heart starts aching
Reach and the numbness dims
Beat still my minds uncertain
Breathe, it begins again, begins again

You are the one real thing, yeah
You are the one true thing that I know
You are the one real thing, yeah
You are the one true thing that I know
You are the one real thing

No matter what the future brings
You're the one real thing

I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
(One real thing)
I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
(One real thing)

I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
(One real thing)
I get down on my knees
And I feel Your love wash over me
(One real thing)
