Sing to the Lord, you, His people
Sing to the Lord, you, His saints
With strength and might, He rules the nations
Leading captives in His train

Sing to the Lord, you, His people
Sing to the Lord, you, His saints
He makes His glory shine upon us
And we will never be the same

Give thanks unto the Lord
Call on His holy name
Let the hearts of those who fear him
Marvel at His wondrous ways

Give thanks unto the Lord
Join Heaven's resounding praise
Sing, shout and dance before Him
Celebrate with songs of praise

Sing to the Lord, you, His people
Sing to the Lord, you, His saints
With strength and might, He rules the nations
Leading captives in His train

Sing to the Lord, you, His people
Sing to the Lord, you, His saints

Leading captives in His train

Sing to the Lord, you, His people
Sing to the Lord, you, His saints
He makes His glory shine upon us
And we will never be the same
Be the same

Believe that God saves us tonight
If you're thirsty, come to me
If God saves us tonight
If you're needy, come to me

If you're hurting, tonight, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me

Are you thirsty, come to me
If you're needy, come to me
If you're thirsty, come to me
If you're needy, won't you come to me

I wanna walk where Angels tread
I wanna find me from the crowd
I wanna worship at Your feet
