My mommy always tells me to do what's right!
To wash behind my ears and try to be polite!
Because she loves me so!
She tells me what I need to know!

But sometimes when I'm playin' with a friend or two,
They're doin' things I'm not supposed to do!
I don't go along, cause what they do is wrong.

Chorus:
Stand for what you believe in.
God...
He's the one to back you up!
...will stand with you!
Stand Up! Stand Up!

When everybody tells you that you gotta be cool,
Remember what you learned in Sunday School!
Just check it out!
The Bible tells you what it's all about!

If you have a question, go ask your dad.
And he can tell you if a thing is good or bad,
You'll make his day,
If you remember what your parents say!

(chorus)
