(M. Gray, N. MacDonald)

One night, downtown, young girl, head down

Walked in, sat down beside me

One look was enough, and this boy was in love

The cold sweat was burning up inside me

Chorus:

You're not shy like a little girl, you don't cry like a kissin'
doll

Little Jeany was just too much, she said, baby baby, look but don't touch

She got up and walked by, a little teaser with one thing on her mind

The jukebox at number twenty-five

Next thing that I knew, she was dancing on the bar

Twistin' on and a-shakin', lookin' like a movie star

Hot sticky stuff and close enough to touch

(chorus)

(Solo)

(chorus)

And this is what she said to me, she said baby baby baby, baby baby baby

Baby baby baby, baby baby baby baby baby baby

Baby baby baby, baby baby baby, she said baby baby baby

Baby baby baby baby baby baby

(Baby baby baby) Look but don't touch

(Baby baby baby) Look but don't touch

(Baby baby baby) Look but don't touch

(Baby baby baby) Look but don't touch me

(Look but don't touch) Look but don't touch

(Look but don't touch) Look but don't touch me

(Look but don't touch) Look but don't touch

(Look but don't touch) Touch me, no no no

Look but don't touch me, no

Don't touch my legs, don't touch my hips

Don't touch my ass, don't touch my lips

Don't touch me there, don't [show a hair]

Don't touch my cheeks, don't touch me there, there, there, and there

Don't touch me there, don't touch me there, no no no, ow...
