Close my eyes tight hurt with this light your devious mind come shining through to me shining clear its me

Head for home as the daylight grows
crashing to the floor as a bitter sound rings clear your tragic song i hear

Happy thoughts and empty minds can justify my reasons

No joy for me, till the day
i can hold my head up
King in my hand, hung in shame
Swallow me

i can hold my head up
King in my hand, hung in shame
Swallow me
