I've got a low self-esteem today
My inner strength is slowly seeping away
Won't someone come and wake me?, problems I have
I feel no life, I feed the pride, don't take my self-esteem

Break down my walls of pain
Break down my walls of pain
Break down my walls of pain
Won't you lay my bitterness?

With my eyes seperated by day
I'm alone
With nothing to call my own
So alone

Throw it away
I'm so lonely
Throw it away, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
I'm so lonely

Celebrate the aging of my new skill
Won't you celebrate the aging of my old skill?

Somebody told me I was wasted
Somebody told me I was gone
Somebody told me I was useless
Somebody told me...

I've got a low self-esteem today
My inner strength is slowly seeping away
Won't someone come and wake me?, problems I have
I feel no life, I feed the pride, don't take my self-
esteem

Break down my walls of pain
Break down my walls of pain
Break down my walls of pain
Won't you lay my bitterness?
