Baby could you hear me out
I don't wanna waste your time
Just want to say hello,
How you been doing
It's been a minute since I heard your voice
I don't mean to bother you again,
I just wanna change your mind
All that I've done wrong
Could you just forget it
Baby I'm better now

I know I made it this way
And I'm the only one I can blame
That you're not here
That you're not here
That you're not here
I lost the one of my dreams
Now everyday I'm waking up to a nightmare
A nightmare,
This is a nightmare

I don't wanna wake up cause I'm so scared of how it
kills me
I try to open my eyes but it still feels like a dream
Don't shake this bed of mine, just let me sleep
Cause everyday feels like a real life nightmare

I didn't mean to play that part
I didn't mean to be the one
To leave you torn apart,
Feeling abandoned and broken hearted
You tried to tell me but I didn't wanna see
It's funny how the tables turned on me
The tide is rising now, feels like I'm goin' under Wish you could rescue me

I know I made it this way
And I'm the only one I can blame
That you're not here
That you're not here
That you're not here
I lost the one of my dreams

Now everyday I'm waking up to a nightmare
A nightmare,
This is a nightmare

I don't wanna wake up cause I'm so scared of how it
kills me
I try to open my eyes but it still feels like a dream
Don't shake this bed of mine, just let me sleep
Cause everyday feels like a real life nightmare

The regret goes down like
A spoonfull of broken glass
I know that it's my fault
That you're not here now
All the tears that I cry
Won't make my days no better
No matter how hard the sun shines,
I'll still be alone in the dark
Without you

I don't wanna wake up cause I'm so scared of how it
kills me
I try to open my eyes but it still feels like a dream
Don't shake this bed of mine, just let me sleep
Cause everyday feels like a real life nightmare

I just wanna lay down for as long as my eyes let me sleep
I can't tell now if this is real or just a dream
There was no bed of mine to let me sleep
So I guess this is my real life
And everyday feels like a real life
Nightmare
