I feel like a number one song by the way you're requesting me.
I feel like you've done me wrong and I wish you'd stop calling.
I feel like you're telling the truth when you say you regretted to leave.
I feel like you lied to me when you say that you're changing.

So go about your way,
Really I'm okay.
Too many times you're leading me astray,
Baby I'm too busy fixing me,
To be chasing you around.
I try to make a way,
But now it's just too late,
Don't know why you're texting constantly.
How could you really begging me,
Saying that you're lonely now?

You didn't need me around,
Now it burns when it's going down.
You gotta drink that lonely straight,
Cause I'm no chaser.
Missing me will never stop,
No better when it's on the rocks.
You gotta drink that lonely straight,
Cause I'm no chaser.
No, no, no, no.
I'm no chaser.
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
I would do better to forget ya.

I feel like royal majesty, kid of the crown.
I feel like you feel I'd take you back, but no lost and found.
I feel you got apologies for days, no meaning at all.
And I feel you can't reach my level, cause I'm too tall.

So go about your way,

Really I'm okay.
Too many times you're leading me astray,
Baby I'm too busy fixing me,
To be chasing you around.
I try to make a way,
But now it's just too late,
Don't know why you're texting constantly.
How could you really begging me,
Saying that you're lonely now?

You didn't need me around,
Now it burns when it's going down.
You gotta drink that lonely straight,
Cause I'm no chaser.
Missing me will never stop,
No better when it's on the rocks.
You gotta drink that lonely straight,
Cause I'm no chaser.
No, no, no, no.
I'm no chaser.
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
I would do better to forget ya.
