Never thought that giving you my all would be so lonely
I'm so said that now that I will never see the morning
The seasons never change
The earth has ceased to turn
My sunshine went away
Never to return

48 hours is too long in the dark
Sitting here talking to the moon
Waiting for the spark
No I'm looking for a sign hoping you're still mine
Everybody said you'll search you'll find
Now you got me wishing for a little light
From my sunshine

Whispers from the wind they keep on blowing sadly saying
Get away
The only chance I'm having to escape
My July is never warm
The clouds forever storm
I lost all track of time
Because she stole my light

48 hours is too long in the dark
Sitting here talking to the moon
Waiting for the spark
No I'm looking for a sign hoping you're still mine
Everybody said you'll search you'll find
Now you got me wishing for a little light
From my sunshine

My only sunshine
You make me happy when the skies are grey
You never know dear how much I love you
So please don't take my sunshine away

Away away away
Away away away
Yeah

Looking for a sign hoping you're still mine

Everybody said you'll search you'll find
Now you got me wishing for a little light

48 hours is too long in the dark
Sitting here talking to the moon
Waiting for the spark
No I'm looking for a sign hoping you're still mine
Everybody said you'll search you'll find
Now you got me wishing for a little light
From my sunshine
