i can't see how we
leave behind someone in need
won't we heed their final plea can't we see their hearts still bleed my back won't turn
justice is the final word
this won't be a dream differed emerge from the darkness

see you and i are one in the same we feel a need to change don't wanna blame ourselves for a reckless lifestyle that we're living today no peace no treaty no conversations no pride no pity no Muslim nation don't we got a name to protect realize this we got Islam on our back representing truth
how can we survive it ain't instilled in the youth steady losing grip of the faith remove the mask of ignorance and put on a new face embrace a new change for the better maybe we can see the day when we all survive together stand tall, rise up, stand firm, stand up be proud, unite, look in my eyes and I'll shout it out

i don't wanna see no pain no more in the eyes of innocent people
i don't wanna witness this injustice, hear no, speak no
evil
cuz i feel my heart is in my throat
i don't wanna see another fall
i don't wanna take another glance
my people just stand tall
stand tall
stand tall
woah my people just stand tall

i can see the faith and hope in you the fire in the eyes for the one who cries truth i can see the pain

i can take the blame
i can see the troubles that we all overcame now can you see the faith and hope in me can you feel the fire that is soon to freeze can you hear the screams can you feel me breathe can you see me prayin cuz I'm on my knees now prayin for the day that we all can live prayin for the day that i teach my kids all the right and wrong i gotta stay strong say it one more time
my people stand tall

stand tall
stand tall

innocent people
