"Hope, Again"

This feels like I'm drowning
Can't find the surface like a nightmare
Yet I can't sleep

Life and death so intertwined
Hello, goodbye at the same time
I need a touch from the divine

Chorus:
When my soul is empty
I'll put my hope in You
Trusting in Your faithfulness
And nowhere else will I turn
The to Your arms my hands raised high
Praying for Your mercies

Oh God my hands feel tied
Open up the skies and reach down
Save from my weakness

And wash this fear away
May the darkness fade
And may Your greater love prevail

(Chorus)

You've given me hope again
I don't know how, but somehow
