Time running out but that's ok
That sacred place I'll find it my way
I can feel that feeling
I'll make through I aint gonna run
I spoke the words with no help from anyone
I couldnt shake that feeling

Don't let go
Wont let go

An axe attack and I'm on the right track
A speed demon I can't go back
Do you know my reason
Fully charged and I'm gonna explode
I had a power overload
Now I know my Reason

You gotta commit to rock

And if you leave and say that I'll cry
But I know my love for rock will never die

You gotta commit to rock
