You say everything is okay
But I can tell you're lying
I see the pain that dwells within
I know you gave it all
I know that you've been trying
But our team was never meant to win
It's time to stop pretending
We have to move along
This is the best of endings
To our song

Pack your bags and walk away
There's nothing left, left for us to say
Don't look back there's nothing more to see
Darling I'll be fine don't you worry about me

Sometimes it can be so damn hard
To see things clearly
Sometimes the truth hurt more than the lies
I only hope that you
If you ever see me
Think of me as the one who made you realize
It's time to stop pretending
We have to move along
This is the best of endings
To our song

Pack your bags and walk away
Don't look back there's nothing more to see
Darling I'll be fine don't you worry about me

It's time to stop pretending
We have to move along
This is the best of endings
To our song...
