Wait, wait another minute for me
Cuz I can't figure out what you say I know
Is all that we'll do,
I have to make out something better for you
Insane, I know this might sound ugly strange
But give me a chance to explain you see me
Before I go

I can see the irony my apologies
Are becoming a daily routine
For you and me

Hey hey hey
I'm a hopeless case
Hey hey hey
What you want from me?

Hey, please give my life up for me
I'll be holding a knife all the trees
I'm asking you
Although I know, I've been through this before
Stay,
The story is funny you see
Before I could think I would stay once again
