They're hiding behind laws and regulations
And when you try to ask them questions
They refer to different paragraphs
No one has ever heard of
The mislead us they deceive us
With their suits and fancy words
When they speak about how bright
The future's looking for us all

[Chorus:]

Give us something to believe in
We're tired of you feeding us
With your empty promises
Stop this ridiculous charade
Admit it you have failed
Everyone who used to have faith in you

Can someone tell me who's included
In their masterplan
And do they really care about the people
Who are living in this land
Yeah maybe all their fancy words
Are a part of the façade
That they try so hard
To uphold at any cost

Sometimes I cannot help myself
From wondering what happened to the days
When the struggle for equality
Were more than simple words
Cause today in our society
It's always the minoritys
The weak and poor
Who in the end is paying more and more
