

Skumdum "So Sorry!"

Visit "So Sorry!" on MotoLyrics.com

It's been two weeks
And you still don't talk to me
You refuse to answer all my calls

You won't even say hello
The few times we meet
Still I don't blame you at all

Cause you've got every reason to loathe me
Just believe me when I say I'm sorry, sorry so sorry

Take my hand
I promise I won't let you down once again
Take my hand again
Please don't give in
Take my hand
I promise I won't disappoint you this time
Take my hand again
I won't give in

I let you down
And when you needed me the most
You had to face the world alone

Now I would do anything
To regain your trust
But I can't do it on my own

You've got every reason to loathe me
I just want you to know that I'm sorry, sorry so sorry
