

Skumdum "Sober"

Visit "Sober" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been sober for seven whole days
I'm feeling bored and I miss the haze
Can't believe how I could be so dumb
Stupid promises what have I done
Cannot sleep I'm about to explode
Feels like I've sold my soul

[Chorus:]

Cause baby I wasn't meant to lead a normal life
And I just can't keep on living in this lie
Yeah baby I wasn't meant for a sober life
And I can't keep on pretending I'm a sober guy
What have I done

Can't remember the last time I smiled
Feels like something inside me has died
Never realized how hard it would be
Don't think you know what you are asking from me
