"Great Mistake"

Thoughts that need repenting
Feelings in need of mending
Skin that tastes like candy
Words without understanding

Shook me by day
Shook me if that's okay
Oh, ay
Shook me by day

It was a good day
But it's not so I guess I'll stay
It's such a great mistake to make
What's done is done
I can't help but feel insane
You build me up to build me down
It's such a great mistake to make
And it can never be undone

We share subtleties
And strange tendencies
This fair never-ending
No need for pretending

Shook me by day
Shook me if that's okay
Oh, ay
Shook me by day

It was a good day
But it's not so I guess I'll stay
It's such a great mistake to make
What's done is done
I can't help but feel insane
You build me up to build me down
It's such a great mistake to make
And it can never be undone
