You are the sunshine
I am the rain that falls in line
You are a candle
And I am your darkness
You are the moonlight
I am the cloud that passes by
You are a vision
And I am blindness

And so it goes The story is far too old to know it all

(chorus)

On and on, we dance until the song is off the radio
On and on, we hold each other long after the crowd is gone
On and on, our love goes on and on

You are an island
I am the raging of the sea
You are the fortress
And I am abandoned
You are the valley
You are a bird that flies so high
You are a temple
And I am a beggar

And so it goes
The story is far too old to know it all

(repeat chorus)

Take me to your drawbridge
Come take me to your door
Take me when I'm hungry baby
Take me when I'm poor
Take me when I'm sick of love
Take me when you've had enough
Take me when I'm lost, alone
And don't know the reasons why

(repeat chorus x2)

You are a vision
And I am blindness
