Break through this cold

With the warmth of your Soul

Let it sink through my Skin

I'll breathe you
In through my nose

You keep me up at night

You keep me up all
Night

It goes on and on I'll
Sing to you forever

Late at night I'll
Dream that we're together

Lay in bed so you can
Sleep better

You're always
Better

You are my strength
When I am too weak

You wont let me break
And you do it with ease

I've tried to
Give you all that you need

But I've made
Mistakes, I've gotta make you believe

Lets go back home to
The one place we know

That will never get old
So long as love flows

Believe in me if not for anything.
