I can see that you and me
We'll be together forever and ever, you'll see
When we start a new life together

Time's gone by when foolish pride tore us apart
And I thought forever I'd be so free
I've got chains on my heart and you've got the key

Chains on my heart, chains on my heart
Only you could open the door to my heart
Locked since you went away, oh yeah
But now you're back and I can feel
Everything's going my way, yeah

I can see that you and me
We'll be together forever and ever, you'll see
When we start a new life together
