Don't waste your time, a-honey, don't waste your time
You're getting caught up on a merry-go-round
And I know you like the feeling going up, going down

Don't waste your time, a-honey, find a new line
"Come up and see me sometime" just ain't your style
And I know there used to be a time when you'd run a mile

Chorus

And you've been riding in them rock and roll cars
You want to be a back seat star
And 'cos you ain't got into trouble so far
So you think you've got it, you think you've got it ...

Made on Page 3, a-honey, for all to see
Your finer points are gonna make someone's day
And I know it pays to advertise the goods on display

Chorus

And you've been riding in them rock and roll cars
You want to be a back seat star
And 'cos you ain't got into trouble so far
So you think you've got it, you think you've got it made

Remember you're lost without your love
Remember the cost without your love
Remember you're lost without your love
A-honey, honey

Break

Honey, honey

Yeah

Don't spoil your fun, honey honey, and don't jump the gun
A tricky-dicky situation will arise
And I know that all you're gonna get's a great big surprise

Chorus

You've been riding in them rock and roll cars
You want to be a back seat star
And 'cos you ain't got into trouble so far
So you think you've got it, you think you've got it

Chorus

And you've been riding in them rock and roll cars
You want to be a back seat star
And 'cos you ain't got into trouble so far
So you think you've got it, you think you've got it made

Don't waste your time
Find a new line
Don't jump the gun, honey honey
Don't spoil your fun
Don't waste your time
Ooh, find a new line
Don't waste your time, time
Don't waste your time
