We were leaving L.A. airport
Me and Midland's misery
On an early morning plane flight out
To some radio XYZ

Was a 1950's prob job
That had seen much better days
When we came on into the last approach
Saw the runway through a haze

Chorus
And the wheels ain't coming down
All in mind our lives passed before my eyes
And the wheels ain't coming down
And you realize you wanna stay alive
You wanna stay alive

Women weeping, children playing
As we roared into a climb
Men was praying, we was drinking lots
And it never cost a dime

Altered course for San Francisco
Standing by on a red alert
Gonna chance a landing on the sea
Hoping nobody gets hurt

Chorus
And the wheels ain't coming down
All in mind our lives passed before my eyes
And the wheels ain't coming down
And you realize you wanna stay alive
You wanna stay alive

Wanna stay alive

Stay alive

We aborted joked the captain
When our feet had touched the ground
And I won't forget the moment he said

"It's OK folks the wheels are coming down"

Chorus

And the wheels they're coming down
Did you realize it's good to be alive
And the wheels they're coming down
Did you realize you're gonna just survive
It's good to be alive

It's good to be alive

They're coming down

They're coming on down

They're coming on down

They're coming on down
