I had plenty of keys on my key ring
A beautiful home I had every(D)thing
With a lovin' wife and a car to drive
I came home from work every day at five

And one by one I started losin' them keys
My darling wife I just couldn't please
My boss got on my nerves one day
I knew that I was on my way

chorus:
I lost my wife, I lost my home
Quit my job, and set out alone
With just one key on my key chain
I'm gonna start all over again

She finally decided we just couldn't be
She wanted things I just couldn't see
She said, I'm tired of waiting around
She took the last train out of town

Repeat chorus

Well the bankers came and took the key to my home
Just one key left from all I ever owned
I'm turning that key lettin' out the clutch
I never did like this town that much

Repeat chorus
