(written by: Slash / M.Sorum / E.Dover)
Lower than the bottom Swallowed by the ride Floating in the bathtub Children play outside

So tell me how to do it How to do what I'm gonna do How to take the knife From inside of you Baby, now you're lower too

You looked so unhappy Squatting in some stall And it gets even better When all the lights are off

So tell me how to do it How to do what I'm gonna do How to keep the life inside of you Baby, now you're lower too

What were you really thinking What did you need Cause
all those wounds forever bleed

Drink me It's a nightmare It's the needle in your veins

So tell me how to do it How to do what I'm gonna do
How to keep the knife From inside of you Baby, now
you're lower too

Burning every memory It's gonna eat your insides out and throw it out on me Struggling, heaven help you Staring down the barrel of your own gun And now you're lower too
