Our government is fucked
Sure to bring us down
The media incites civil unrest
Hatred can bring you down

War
I don't want your war
War
We don't need your war
We don't need your war
War

Military beasts starvin' countries
Drama brings you to your knees
Spill your blood to save humanity
Dyin' for the food we feed

War
I don't want your war
War
We don't need your war
We don't need your war
War

Our government is fucked
Sure to bring us down
The media incites civil unrest
Hatred can bring you down

Injustice drives you crazy
It drive L.A. insane
In this generation
Hatred is the name

War
I don't want your war
War
We don't need your war
We don't need your war
War
War

L.A. '92

Bastard magic
Should make you cry
The answer to the question
Is we ain't gonna die

Police can make me under stress
While all L.A.'s a fuckin' mess
Don't patronize my fuckin' ass
Some heads will get crashed

Bush has got his upper cut
He's goin' to fuckin' war
He won't revert to sticks and stones
Just bullet holes and broken bones

Chaos, chaos, chaos, chaos
Don't give a fuck

Everybody knock ya down
No weight support so taken down
The juk-jock, [Incomprehensible]
We ain't got shit, now had enough

Chaos, chaos, chaos, chaos

Disorder
Disorder
Disorder
Disorder

Disorder
Disorder
Disorder
Disorder
